

Everymind is celebrating 18 years since it began working with tertiary educators on internationally innovative programs for teacher and media education. This infographic timeline outlines key milestones of the Government-funded programs that continue to play a significant role in suicide prevention and mental health in Australia.

Response Ability Teacher Education Timeline

